Headline:
Rain and snow clearing then mainly dry and bright.

Today:
Rather cloudy start away from the far north with outbreaks of rain, sleet and snow. However brighter conditions across the far north spread south through the morning with some good spells of sunshine developing and just the odd wintry shower. Maximum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Tonight:
One or two wintry showers possible towards the north coast, otherwise a dry, cold night with long clear spells. Widespread, locally severe, frost with ice possible on untreated surfaces. Minimum temperature -8 deg C (18 deg F).

Saturday:
A largely dry day with almost unbroken sunshine away from the north and east coasts, where one or two wintry showers possible. Frost persisting all day in places. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Clear or sunny spells and a few wintry showers through Sunday and Monday with severe overnight frosts. Tuesday sees rain and hill snow spreading northeast along with strengthening southeasterly winds.
